2. FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES 2017 ACHIEVEMENT AWARD RECIPIENTS! The Foundation Board also is delighted to announce these extraordinary recipients of the Foundation's 2017 Achievement Awards:

LEE PERRON (71). After a long and successful career in the cable television industry in California (ending with a stint as President of Adelphia's Southern California region), Lee and his wife Sandy retired to the Gulf Coast of Florida. Determined to use his energies to better his community, Lee volunteers his time tutoring elementary school students, and utilizes his business expertise to manage the non-profit Englewood Farmers' Market (englewoodfarmersmarket.org) which he founded in November 2011. Starting with just a handful of vendors and attendees, the Market has grown to a major weekly event having an eight-month season, drawing hundreds of vendors and hundreds of thousands of attendees each year. A central purpose of the market is educational, offering nutrition and healthy eating information to the community. The Market piloted a program – now spreading well beyond Englewood -- to acquire grant dollars that double the buying power of low-income individuals using their SNAP cards to purchase healthy Florida-grown items at the Market. The Market also has acquired infrastructure improvements from local governments and has spurred significant economic growth around its location in the "Old Englewood Village" section of Englewood, Florida. In early 2016, the University of Florida released a study that outlined the very significant positive economic impact the Market has had on the local economy.

MARK MOTTERN (88). Mark has had a very distinguished career in the field of broadcast journalism. He is a multiple Emmy Award-winning television producer for the nationally syndicated entertainment news program Extra and has been awarded the prestigious Edward R. Murrow Award for excellence in reporting. A graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Mark began his broadcasting career in Raleigh, North Carolina. As a reporter for the local Fox television affiliate, Mark covered a wide variety of major news stories, served as a media witness to a state execution, and was honored by the Radio-Television News Directors Association for his reporting on the brutal murder of a law enforcement officer. Mark continued his career as an investigative reporter/news anchor at the NBC affiliate in Wichita, Kansas. He exposed a convicted sex offender working as a school bus driver, helped to unlock a 25 year-old murder case centering on the BTK Strangler, and exposed a heartbreaking puppy mill. He also reported on national news stories including the destruction leveled by a devastating F-4 tornado and provided round-the-clock, live coverage of a massive grain elevator explosion that killed seven trapped workers. Mark's work earned him two Kansas Association of Broadcasters Awards and the prestigious Edward R. Murrow Award for excellence in reporting.

In 1999, Mark moved to the nation's second largest broadcast market and became a reporter for KCBS, the CBS affiliate in Los Angeles. His breaking news coverage included covering everything from wildfires to mudslides to the crash of Alaska Airlines Flight 261. After the intense coverage of the September 11th attacks, Mark decided it was time to trade in hard news for the lighter side of broadcasting life. As a Supervising Producer for Extra, Mark is often on the red carpet, covering movie premieres and major award shows including the Oscars, Grammys and Emmys. Mark also can be seen on the field and on the court, providing coverage of major sporting events including the Super Bowl, World Series and NBA Finals. The show has taken Mark around the world from the Toronto Film Festival in Canada to the Cannes Film Festival in France and to the Sundance Film Festival in Park City, Utah. Mark's years of experience in interviewing, reporting and being both in front of and behind the camera has made him a valuable and respected producer in the industry.

(Photos and bios of these extremely accomplished Hornets, and all past years' extraordinary Achievement Award recipients, can be found on surrattsville.org.)

3. ACCOKEEK LEGEND (AND FOUNDATION BOARD MEMBER) FEATURED IN SUNDANCE AWARD-WINNING DOCUMENTARY! We received this press release about an upcoming D.C. screening of the Sundance Award-winning documentary featuring Accokeek's Link Wray and for which Greg Laxton (81, and Foundation Board member) served as technical advisor. (Greg also appears briefly near the beginning of the film!)

"RUMBLE: THE INDIANS WHO ROCKED THE WORLD screens at the prestigious AFI Docs series in Washington D.C., in partnership with the Embassy of Canada. This rollicking and thoughtful film about the Indian role in the history of North American music that celebrates the unsung Native American and First Nation musicians who helped shape rock and roll will be screened on Friday, June 16 at 6:30 p.m., at the Landmark E Street Theatre, 555 11th Street NW, Washington, DC 20004. "

[Ed. note: This makes two critically acclaimed rock and roll documentaries with Surrattsville connections released and screened in Washington this year, the other being "Anacostia Delta" featuring Foundation Achievement Award recipients John Previti (72) and Dave Chappell (75)!]

4. MORE ON JOHN SURRATTS. We received this note from Duke Coleman (53), prompted by the item in the last e-Notice about the infamous (and very odd) John Surratt:

"Two or three years ago I read the entire text of the lecture by John Surratt delivered at Rockville, MD. It was described as a "15 minute" lecture. It seemed to me to be much greater than that. And I cannot repeat as much as a single phrase of it. I do remember that the language seemed somewhat stilted but that might be just a reflection of what literacy meant in those days. At any rate it is still available on-line; just google Text of John Surratt lecture at Rockville MD."

5. ACHIEVEMENT AWARD RECIPIENT MENTIONED IN WHITE HOUSE BRIEFING. Some of our readers reported that 2008 Achievement Award recipient Rick Lifton (71) attended a White House biomedical research meeting on May 8, and was specifically mentioned in several press accounts about the meeting and by the press secretary in the official White House briefing on that date, as follows: "Also today, the Vice President, Secretary Price, Secretary Shulkin all attended an event on the scientific opportunities in biomedicine. Key leaders from government, the private sector and academia discussed the United States' comprehensive biomedical landscape and further educated White House staff, including assistants to the President, Ivanka Trump and Reed Cordish, on this important topic.

The meeting was organized by the National Institutes of Health and was led by its director, Dr. Francis Collins. Leaders in the medical, education and research joined executives from companies who invest in biotech to provide analysis and real-life examples of how America's sustained leadership in the biomedical industry has resulted in immeasurable benefits to both our country's economic and physical well-being. Among the participants were Bill Ford, the CEO of General Atlantic; Dr. Craig Thompson, the president of Memorial Sloan Kettering

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2017/05/08/daily-press-briefing-press-secretary-sean-spicer-45>

[Ed. note: Some of readers will recall that there are two university presidents among the Foundation’s Achievement Award recipients: Rick and Dave DeCenzo (73)!]

6. ACHIEVEMENT AWARD RECIPIENT AND SURRETTSTOCK VOLUNTEERS TO PERFORM IN HISTORIC THEATER.

Surrattstock creator, performer and volunteer Neal Dawson (73), Surrattstock music director, performer and volunteer Roger Owens (73), and Surrattstock performer and volunteer -- and Foundation Achievement Award recipient -- John Previti (72) will be performing with The Back Pages Band in the gorgeous and historic Carroll Theater on Main Street in Westminster, MD on Saturday June 17 at 7:30. This is a rare opportunity to see three members of one of Surrattsville’s greatest bands, Butler’s Orchard, perform live in a concert setting. (Butler’s Orchard is often seen as the “bridge” between legendary Surrattsville bands The Tuesday Boots and DC Star.) Tickets are available at:

https://carrollcountyyartscouncil.ticketleap.com/the-back-pages-band-2017/dates/Jun-17-2017_at_0730PM

[Ed. note: Shameless self-promotion alert: Another Surrattstock performer and volunteer and former member of regular Teen Club band Crusader Rabbit -- yours truly -- is also a member of The Back Pages Band.]

14. PAINLESS – AND VERY EFFECTIVE! -- WAYS TO HELP RAISE FUNDS FOR THE FOUNDATION. Thanks to the many of you who make your Amazon purchases not through "regular" Amazon, but through smile.amazon.com, with the Surrattsville High School Foundation designated as their charitable beneficiary. The smile.amazon.com prices, products and Amazon website are identical to "regular" Amazon, but Amazon makes a charitable contribution to the designated charity for every purchase made on smile.amazon.com.

And thanks to those of you making your internet searches using the goodsearch search engine. It uses the yahoo search engine (which we're told rivals google and apparently has never failed any Foundation user) and, like smile.amazon.com, makes a contribution to your designated charity for every internet search. Here's the link: <https://www.goodsearch.com/causes/surrattsville-high-school-foundation>.

15. MORE PRICELESS TREASURES FROM "GREEN LIGHT." As we previously noted, in 2015 Duke Coleman (53) donated to the Foundation's Archives a number of copies of an early SHS student newspaper, the "Green Light." Those editions provide a fascinating glimpse into student life at Surrattsville during the 52-53 academic year, 65 years ago! Here are some interesting excerpts from the January 15, 1953 edition of Green Light:

"Clubs: The desires of the students in our Jr.-Sr. High School have been expressed in regard to clubs. Monday morning Mr. Pryde announced in a very encouraging voice that everyone was to choose three clubs he or she would like to see formed. There have been many suggestions for new clubs to be formed and for continuation of old clubs. In the Senior Class there is a group, as yet small, that would like to form a "Religious Club" for the purpose of discussing world problems from the standpoint of religion, and to study the scriptures and different acts and religions. There has also been a strong desire expressed to continue the dramatics club and Hi-Y. Other groups in school have expressed desires to become members of such clubs as A Cappella, Science, Projection, Jr. Hi-Y, dancing and others.

A Kamera Klatch for Shutterbugs: When a group of “shutterbugs” get together there’s bound to be talk and more talk. So, a “See yourself as others see you” is an idea for a different kind of party. Ask all your friends who are camera friends to come over for a “kamera klatch.” Ask them to bring along their collections of pictures, those taken a few years ago as well as their newer ones. If there is a movie maker among the group, perhaps he will bring the screen and projector, too. The serious side of photography can be discussed and many fine points exchanged. Then pause for refreshments with ice cream, a jelly roll and maybe your favorite beverage.

Who Am I: I have brown hair and blue eyes. I have enjoyed all the time I have spent at Surrattsville High School, which I am sorry to say is only five years. I am 5 feet 9 inches tall and weigh 170 pounds. I like hillbilly music. One of my favorite songs is “I’m A Ladies Man.” My favorite sport is soccer. (Last week’s Who Am I was Myra Rigor.)”

16. MORE SURRATTSVILLE MEMORIES FROM DAYS GONE BY. The following is the latest installment of Wayne Tatum (74)’s always evocative memories of his time at Surrattsville Junior High in the 1960s. (We’re running Wayne’s reminiscences as a serial that started in the July 1, 2016 e-Notice, and we’re sure Wayne’s stories will stimulate lots of memories of times likely long gone-by among our readers. Wayne can be reached at manymiles@netzero.net.)

“Confession: One thing I forgot to mention about my adolescent years ... I was a mumbler. During some agonizing seventh grade moments, Mr. Frank Murphy attempted to correct me in front of the Core class many times, as we were being trained for public speaking impromptu on multiple subjects, and I was grilled about this damnable curse on a weekly basis. Nobody could understand what I said back then, so fast and low was my speech, sometimes finalized with a quick giggled end tag, a fast and low talking one-liner smart aleck. Years later, around 2007, Dr. Murphy and I met at an Italian restaurant at his request and dime, and over lunch proceeded to find if I was willing to work with middle school kids. “Wayne, what I need is for someone to motivate them, to ask them about their future plans. Someone who can reach them where they are. Someone they can trust and yet enjoy. What I need Wayne, is a smart@*&.” Who knew? An educator on a recruiting mission for a wiseacre. Weirder things have happened. What I can reveal about my early teen years was that the most common response to my profound observational mini-bursts was: What?! Nowadays, having outgrown the “impediment,” friends and acquaintances can’t shut me up.”

17. SEEKING YEARBOOKS FOR FOUNDATION ARCHIVES. Thanks to the generous gifts from several of our readers noted in prior issues of the e-Notice, the Foundation’s yearbook collection is becoming more complete all the time. However, the Foundation Archives is still lacking:

- All yearbooks before 1951
- 1983-1989
- 1995
- 1998
- 2000
- 2001
- 2004
- 2005
- 2007-present

If anyone has extra copies of any of these missing links, we would love to have them.

(And the Foundation has surplus Boomerangs available for $10 (including shipping) from these years: 1991, 1999, 2002, 2003, and 2006. Please send me an email at hsmith@smithdowney.com if you would like one.)

18. COPIES OF 1929 AND 1944 YEARBOOKS AVAILABLE FOR VIEWING. And speaking of yearbooks, thanks to the efforts of Foundation Archivist Shelby Lee Oppermann, the 1929 and 1944 Surrattsville yearbooks are available for viewing online. (Our readers can go to the “Surrattsville Alumni” Facebook Group, click on Photos, and then click on Albums, to view those treasures.) The Foundation would love to have old yearbooks, or even photocopies or scans of them, for its Archives.

19. FOUNDATION ARCHIVES SEEKING PERMANENT PHYSICAL HOME. And speaking of the Foundation’s Archives, we’re seeking a permanent home for these precious objects. Anywhere in the Clinton/Southern MD area would be fine, and a room or building that starts at 8 x 10 and goes to infinity would be very nice. If you have a lead on a space that might be available to preserve this very important history, please send me an email at hsmith@smithdowney.com.

20. FALLEN HEROES PLAQUE AVAILABLE FOR EVENTS. Here’s an update from Bob Jeter (64) on the Foundation’s Fallen Heroes Plaque that hangs in the Foundation’s Legacy Hall at the School alongside the American and Maryland flags that flew over the U.S. and Maryland Capitols in its honor. “The Fallen Heroes Plaque is available for display at class reunions or any other worthy functions. Feel free to contact me, Bob Jeter, 904jeter@gmail.com or 410-315-9403, preferably well in advance of the date so transfer arrangements can be made. Bob”

21. DON’T FORGET TO CHECK-OUT THE FOUNDATION’S VARIOUS YOUTUBE VIDEO PROGRAMS. Thanks to the tireless efforts and creative talents of the Foundation’s youtube master, Foundation Board member Sandra Smith Simmons (70), the Foundation’s youtube channel now features many programs of interest, such as programs featuring the Foundation’s Fallen Heroes Plaque that was conceived and executed by Bob Jeter (64), the 2015

Achievement Award recipients, and the 2015 Scholarship recipients. The programs can be found at: <https://www.youtube.com/user/SurrattsvilleFDN>.
